What is NYALGRO?

NYALGRO (New York Association of Local Government Records Officers) is a non-profit organization, formed to provide a network to all who are responsible for records upkeep and information management for local governments.

NYALGRO's purpose is to increase public and government awareness of the need for sound management of local government records., to develop a unified position on issues concerning local governments. in the development and implementation of sound records and information practices.

The board of Directors plans the associations' activities and reports yearly to the membership, which includes an account of funds received and distributed.

Any regular member in good standing is eligible and we welcome your nominations. Elections are held each November. The term of office is for two years. Biographies are required to be slated on the ballot and should be submitted in October.

Annual School

Held each year in June, this educational opportunity provides two full days of comprehensive learning for the novice and experienced record's manager. A wide array of vendor exhibits and connecting with other local government record's officers from across the State provides you with the very latest in records and information management.

What does NYALGRO do?

- *Increases public and government awareness of the need for sound management of local government records.
- *Develops a unified position on issues concerning local government records and information.
- *Exchanges information and ideas for problems and solutions unique to local government records and information management.
- *Assists local governments in the development and implementation of sound records and information management practices
- *Succeeds in sharing ideas Statewide

Statewide Newsletter

To assist you in meeting the many challenges facing local government records managers, a statewide newsletter "NYALGRO NETWORK" is delivered to you. It provides you with technical information, tips and a look to the future to help you plan and prepare. Read about the latest from professionals in the records field, updates on new regulations and practical solutions for today's complex problems.

Scholarships

Each year, at least two (2) Cheryl Steinbach Annual Scholarship Awards are presented to records managers planning to attend the annual school.

Professional Recognition

The Wheeler B. Melius, Guy D. Paquin and Robert W. Arnold Awards are presented using the annual school to individuals who have shown exceptional support and involvement in the records profession.

CHERYL STEINBACH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

This annual scholarship was established in honor of Cheryl Steinbach, Town Clerk and RMO for the Town of Chautauqua, and past Treasurer and NYALGRO board member. Cheryl's commitment and dedication to records management issues provided a leadership example for all public servants, not just those involved in records management. NYALGRO awards two (2) full scholarships which includes the school registration fee and hotel accommodations. Applicant must be a member of NYALGRO, and be in good standing by April 15th of each year. Applicant's government/agency will not be assuming the cost of expenses at the annual NYALGRO school. For more details and submission deadline go to www.nyalgro.org

WHEELER B. MELIUS AWARD

The Wheeler B. Melius award is given to a NYALGRO member who demonstrates outstanding service to his/her local government and New York's records management community. The award is named after Wheeler B. Melius who worked in the Albany County Clerk's office in the later part of the nineteenth century. He gained his notoriety when on February 10, 1880, he was the first to reach the burning Albany City Hall which housed an immense quantity of public archives and legal records. Melius began to pass precious volumes of land records through a narrow window to volunteers outside. Singlehandedly Melius passed 700 volumes - nearly six tons of charred and often soaked oversized books out of the building.

Nominations can be made to:

ROBERT W. ARNOLD DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Robert W. Arnold Distinguished Service Award was created by NYALGRO in 2006 to honor Bob Arnold for his many years of service with the State archives and his assistance to records management officers.

NYALGRO looks for appropriate candidates for the award who preformed their duties like a "mini records advisory officer". helping colleagues with advice on resources, procedures, grants, etc.

GUY D. PAQUIN AWARD

The Guy D. Paquin Award is presented to an individual or organization to honor noteworthy achievements and exceptional support and involvement in the records management profession.
