What is NYALGRO?

NYALGRO (New York Association of Local Government Records Officers) is a non-profit organization, formed to provide a network to all who are responsible for records upkeep and information management for local governments.

NYALGRO's purpose is to increase public and government awareness of the need for sound management of local government records., to develop a unified position on issues concerning local governments. in the development and implementation of sound records and information practices.

The board of Directors plans the associations' activities and reports yearly to the membership, which includes an account of funds received and distributed.

Any regular member in good standing is eligible and we welcome your nominations. Elections are held each November. The term of office is for two years. Biographies are required to be slated on the ballot and should be submitted in October.

Annual School

Held each year in June, this educational opportunity provides two full days of comprehensive learning for the novice and experienced record's manager. A wide array of vendor exhibits and connecting with other local government record's officers from across the State provides you with the very latest in records and information management.

Statewide Newsletter

To assist you in meeting the many challenges facing local government records managers, a statewide newsletter "NYALGRO NETWORK" is delivered to you. It provides you with technical information, tips and a look to the future to help you plan and prepare. Read about the latest from professionals in the records field, updates on new regulations and practical solutions for today's complex problems.
